Leal Williams

lealjwilliams@gmail.com   074904 17826

Personal Profile

I love to play games on my Nintendo Switch. I am mainly a fan of the RPG genre, Pokémon and Digimon games are among my favourites. I also have an interest in card games, such as the Digimon Card Game, creating deck ideas is my favourite part. I enjoy coding games, I have used Roblox to create my own games for my friends and I to play together.

Qualifications

Sheffield Hallam University, October 2019 - present

- 1st year BSc Computer Science for Games
    - Introduction to Game Development
    - Mathematics for Graphics
    - Professional Experience and Project Development
    - Systems Modelling for Games
    - Fundamentals of Programming for Games
    - Fundamentals of Computer Architecture
- 2nd year BSc Computer Science for Games
    - 3D Games Development
    - Mathematics for Modelling and Rendering
    - Software Hardware Optimisation Techniques

Thomas Rotherham College, September 2017 - June 2019

- 4 A Levels – Maths (A), Further Maths (B), Computer Science (B), Physics (C)

Dinnington High School, September 2013 - June 2019

- 9 GCSEs grades A-C including Mathematics (8) and Computing (A)

Key Skills

- Experienced in C# programming
    - I programmed a C# game using MonoGame for my A Level project
- Knowledge of Lua and C++
    - Experience of Lua from producing games on Roblox
    - Actively learning C++ in university

Work Experience

- 4-day placement at Aardvark Swift
    - Used Bullhorn to input and update information about their clients.

References

Mark Featherstone
| Course leader BSc/MComp Computer Science for Games
| Tel.: (+44) 114 225 6863 | Fax.: (+44) 114 225 3161 | Email: M.Featherstone@shu.ac.uk